

Meet

Kath Irvine

22nd July 2018

Kath Irvine is a permaculture designer and has been designing & managing edible gardens since the late 1990's. Passionate about growing food & good design...

The Food Forest and Community Garden are great learning spaces, because we have new and mature trees and some espalier trees, to see how to prune them all

12 noon start at Kaiapoi Food Forest, Cass Street, with a pruning demonstration

2.30/3 pm we head to the Community Garden, on the playing field of Kaiapoi Borough School, Hilton Street, for afternoon tea & a chat

3.30 pm there will be a screening of "Edible Paradise - growing the food forest revolution" in the Kaiapoi Borough School staff room.

For more information call Brent on 027 2224767 or follow the link <http://kai.net.nz/event/> to register your interest.

Cost is by Koha
